

Indigenous World Film Festival
Student Show Submission Form
Thursday, February 17, 2011
6 p.m. – 10 p.m.

What is it: A student section of the Indigenous World Film Festival. Students are invited to submit their films for public screening as a part of the Indigenous World Film Festival. ANHC High School Program Students will be hosting the event—designing programs, emceeding the evening, and helping to select the films chosen for screening. This will be a great venue for beginning filmmakers to have their debut, it will look great on resumes, and it will be super-fun!

Who Can Participate: Any high school students under 20 years old. One copy of the student's IDs should be included. Filmmakers need not be from an indigenous culture, but the films should feature indigenous people and/or issues in some way. Films do not have to have a specific production date and there is no running time requirement.

When: Deadline for submission is December 10, 2010. Festival is February 17, 2011 6 p.m. - 10 p.m. in the theatre at the Alaska Native Heritage Center. We love it when filmmakers can come to the festival!
